

Barbara Andrade DuBransky, MSW, Deputy Director, Programs, First 5 Riverside

Barbara Andrade DuBransky is the Deputy Director of Programs at First 5 Riverside. Prior to joining First 5 Riverside, Barbara served as the Director of Family Supports at First 5 LA where she managed the Families grants and programs portfolio. She served as a critical thought leader on evidence-based practices and models of home visitation, parent engagement, and related strategies that increase family protective factors. Barbara earned a bachelor's degree in social work from Azusa Pacific University's School of Education and Behavioral Studies and completed her Master's in Social Welfare at UCLA's School of Public Policy and Social Research.